FCC Application Fees to Increase

September 7, 2006

To: Broadcast Clients
From: Peter Gutmann

---

The Commission has announced an increase in its application processing fees. These are the fees to be submitted with most types of applications and requests for Commission action, and are in addition to annual regulatory fees that are due this year September 19. The effective date for the application fee increase is October 17, 2006.

The fee increase is required by Congress and is intended to reflect changes in the Urban Consumer Price Index for the preceding two fiscal years. From October 2003 through October 2005, the CPI increase was 7.7%. With an allowance for rounding to the nearest five dollars, all broadcast fees will rise accordingly. Attached is a list comparing the existing and new fees.
